POLICY TITLE: Student Consultation and Support

Purpose
This policy outlines the consultation and support services available to students and ensures that all students are aware of these services and gain maximum benefit academically, personally and professionally throughout their course.

Policy
Photography Studies College (Melbourne) is committed to ensuring that all students receive adequate support throughout their course to ensure that their full potential is reached.

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) identifies learning needs at entry interview and makes all students aware of the range of support available to them. This support includes but is not limited to course advice and support, academic consultations, learning and technology support, student welfare and professional counselling and career guidance and how to access these services. All student support is provided in accordance with the Privacy Policy.

Procedures
Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will ensure that students are informed at enrolment, orientation, in the student handbook and with updates via email through the student management system the range of student support available. Student support includes discussions, referrals to the professional counsellor, and student consultation appointment times with the teaching staff, and/ or the relevant support staff.

An integral aspect of student support is Photography Studies College (Melbourne)’s At Risk procedure. Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will identify students “at risk” of unsatisfactory performance either through their non attendance and/or academic performance. These identified students will be informed they are “at risk” and contacted in order to arrange an appointment consultation with the Communications & Students Officer and relevant teacher to clearly understand the reason(s) they are “at risk”.

At this appointment consultation the relevant teacher and Communications & Students Officer may involve the Learner Support & Engagement Officer. The teacher will then liaise with the Learner Support Officer to specify an Action Plan that may include a requirement of further support services that the student is required to undertake to improve their performance. The Learner Support & Engagement Officer will implement the Action Plan and report back to the Director Communications & Students who will liaise with the Communications & Students Officer, the Year Level Convenors and/or teacher regarding the students’ progress. Where an Action Plan is specified the details are to be advised to the student in writing.

It is the students’ responsibility to attend any further consultation appointment sessions identified as necessary.
