Procedures

Before an issue becomes a formal grievance

Students (or persons seeking to enrol with Photography Studies College (Melbourne)) are encouraged, wherever possible, to resolve concerns or difficulties directly with the person(s) concerned. Photography Studies College (Melbourne)’s Communications & Student Officers are available to assist students to resolve their issues at this level. All records of such conversations are recorded on the TEAM’s student management data base by the Communications & Student Officers.

Formal Grievance Procedure

This formal procedure can be utilised by students, including enrolled students, or persons seeking to enrol in a course with Photography Studies College (Melbourne) to submit a grievance of an academic or non-academic nature.

Grievances of an academic nature include matters related to student progress, assessment, curriculum and awards in a course of study.

Grievances of a non-academic nature cover all other matters including complaints in relation to personal information that Photography Studies College (Melbourne) holds in relation to the individual.

All steps in this procedure are logged in Photography Studies College (Melbourne)’s Complaints Register which is formally reviewed by management as part of its continuous improvement processes.

During all stages of this procedure Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will take steps to ensure that:
- the complainant and the respondent will not be victimised or discriminated against;
- the complainant has an opportunity to formally present their case, and each party to the grievance may be accompanied and assisted by a support person at any relevant meetings;
• a full explanation in writing for decisions and actions taken as part of the process will be provided, if so requested by the complainant or the respondent;
• where the internal or external complaint handling or appeal process results in a decision that supports the complainant, Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will immediately implement any decision and/or corrective and preventative action required and advise the complainant of the outcome;
• there is no cost to the complainant for utilising this grievance and appeals process.

Stage one – formal grievance:
Formal grievances must be submitted in writing to the relevant Communications & Student Officers. Receipt of the grievance will be acknowledged within five working days and the complaints process will commence within ten days of the receipt of the written complaint and all reasonable measures will be taken to finalise the process as soon as practicable.

The Communications & Student Officers will then, if necessary, seek to clarify the outcome that the complainant hopes to achieve.

Such clarification may be sought by written or verbal request or by a face-to-face interview with the complainant. When such clarification occurs in a face-to-face interview the complainant or respondent may ask another person to accompany them. The clarification given should be recorded.

The Communications & Student Officers, will then endeavour to resolve the grievance and provide a written report to the complainant on the steps taken to address the grievance, including the reasons for the decision, within ten working days. The report will further advise the complainant of their right to access the internal appeals process if they are not satisfied with the outcome of their formal grievance.

Stage two – internal appeal:
If a complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome of their formal grievance they may lodge an appeal with Director Communications & Students (who is senior to the original decision maker). An appropriate person or committee will be appointed to consult with the complainant and other relevant parties within ten working days.

Where possible such consultations should take the form of face-to-face interviews. The complainant or the respondent may ask another person to accompany them to these interviews.

Following the consultation, the Director Communications & Students (or nominee) will provide a written report to the complainant advising the further steps taken to address the grievance, including the reasons for the decision, within ten working days. The report will further advise the complainant of their right to access the external appeals process if they are not satisfied with the outcome of their internal appeal.

Stage three – external mediator:
If the complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome of their appeal, they may make a written request to Photography Studies College (Melbourne) that they wish the matter be dealt with through an external dispute resolution process facilitated by an independent external mediator.
Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will then advise the external mediator in writing of the request within five working days.

The external mediator will arrange for a Round Table Discussion (RTD) to be held between Photography Studies College (Melbourne) and the complainant within ten working days of the written notification from Photography Studies College (Melbourne). The complainant or the respondent may ask another person to accompany them to meetings with the external mediator or the mediator.

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will bear any costs associated with the mediation.

Once the Director Communications & Students, or their nominee, receives the report of the outcomes from the RTD or independent mediation, they will provide a written report to the complainant within ten working days on the recommended actions to resolve the grievance.

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) agrees to be bound by the independent mediator’s recommendations and the Director Communications & Students, or their nominee, will ensure that any recommendations made are implemented within thirty days of receipt of the mediator’s report.
