Procedures

Before an issue becomes a Formal Grievance

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) welcomes feedback and constructive discussion about any dissatisfaction, complaint or grievance that may have been experienced.

Students or persons seeking to enrol with Photography Studies College (Melbourne) are encouraged, wherever possible, to resolve concerns or difficulties directly with the person(s) concerned.

If this is not possible, for academic matters, the Higher Education Course Director or a Year Level Convenor (for students enrolled in higher education courses or applicants seeking to enrol in these courses) or the VET Training Manager (for students enrolled in VET courses or applicants seeking to enrol in these courses) are available to assist students to resolve their issues at this level. For non-academic matters, the Team Leader Student Services is the first point of contact. All details of such conversations are recorded in the student management system (SMS).

Formal Grievance Procedure

If the concern or difficulty cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant, the formal grievance procedure can be utilised by enrolled students, or persons seeking to enrol in a course with Photography Studies College (Melbourne), by following the procedures specified at Stage One – Formal Grievance below to submit a grievance of an academic or non-academic nature.

All steps in this procedure are logged in Photography Studies College (Melbourne)'s Grievance Register which is formally reported to the appropriate governance board/s of the College and reviewed by management as part of its continuous improvement processes.

During all stages of this procedure Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will take steps to ensure that:

- the complainant and the respondent will not be victimised or discriminated against;
- the complainant has an opportunity to formally present their case, and each party to the grievance may be accompanied and assisted by a support person at any relevant meetings;
- a full explanation in writing for decisions and actions taken as part of the process will be provided, if requested by the complainant or the respondent;
- where the internal or external complaint handling or appeal process results in a decision that supports the complainant, Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will immediately implement any decision and/or corrective and preventative action required and advise the complainant of the outcome;
- the grievance and appeals process is accessible and inexpensive.

Stage One – Formal Grievance:

Formal grievances must be submitted in writing to:

- (i) Academic matters: the Higher Education Course Director (for students enrolled in higher education courses or applicants seeking to enrol in these courses) or the VET Training Manager (for students enrolled in VET courses or applicants seeking to enrol in these courses).

- (ii) Non-Academic Matters: the Team Leader Student Services for all students or applicants seeking to enrol in any course or unit provided by Photography Studies College (Melbourne).

Receipt of the grievance will be acknowledged within five (5) working days and the complaints process will commence within ten (10) days of receipt of the written complaint and all reasonable measures will be taken to finalise the process as soon as practicable.

The relevant staff member will then, if necessary, seek to clarify the outcome that the complainant hopes to achieve. Such clarification may be sought by written or verbal request or by a face-to-face interview with the complainant. When such clarification occurs in a face-to-face interview the complainant or respondent may ask another person to accompany them. In each case, the clarification given should be recorded in writing.

The relevant staff member will then endeavour to resolve the grievance and provide a written report to the complainant on the steps taken to address the grievance, including the reasons for the decision, within ten (10) working days.

The report will further advise the complainant of their right to access the internal appeals process if they are not satisfied with the outcome of their formal grievance.

Where Photography Studies College (Melbourne) considers more than sixty (60) calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will inform the complainant in writing the reasons why more than sixty (60) calendar days are required and provide regular updates to the complainant on the progress of the matter.

Stage Two – Internal Appeal

If a complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome of their formal grievance – either academic or non-academic, they may lodge an appeal with the Director of Academic Quality & Standards within five days of completion of Stage 1. The Director of Academic Quality & Standards will consult with the complainant and other relevant parties within ten working days of receipt of the appeal.

Where possible such consultations should take the form of face-to-face interviews. The complainant or the respondent may ask another person to accompany them to these interviews.

Following the consultation and within ten (10) working days the Director of Academic Quality & Standards will provide a written report to the complainant advising the outcome of the appeal and/or what further steps have been taken to address the grievance, including the reasons for the decision. The report will further advise the complainant of their right to access the external review process if they are not satisfied with the outcome of their internal appeal.

Stage Three – External Review

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome of their appeal, they may make a written request to the Managing Director (or nominee) of the Photography Studies College (Melbourne) for an external review of the decisions made in the internal appeal. The external review will be undertaken by an independent body nominated by the College.

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) is a member of the Resolution Institute which provides a Student Mediation Scheme for external reviews. The scheme allows a member educational and training institution or its students to initiate proceedings with the Resolution Institute. The Resolution Institute's external review services can only be utilised when the internal review process has been exhausted.

Within five (5) working days of receiving the request for an external review, the Managing Director will advise the external review organisation in writing that an external review has been requested by a complainant.

Alternatively, the complainant may initiate external review proceedings using the Application for External Review application on the Resolution Institutes website. External review and dispute resolution costs are shared between the parties unless another arrangement is made.

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will acknowledge receipt of an application for external review of a reviewable decision in writing and inform the applicant that, if the external reviewer has not advised the applicant of a decision within forty-five (45) days of receiving the application for review, the reviewer is taken to have confirmed the original decision.

The Managing Director (or nominee) will ensure that any recommendations arising from any external review will be implemented within thirty (30) days following receipt of the recommendations.

Further Action

The complainant may also decide to refer the matter as appropriate to the:

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will not report the student through PRISMS for unsatisfactory course progress or attendance until the outcome of an internal and external complaints handling and appeals process is known, and the decision or recommendation supports the College (Standards 8 & 10 - National Code 2018).

Also, these procedures do not circumscribe an individual's rights to pursue other legal remedies.

Enrolment Status

Record Keeping & Confidentiality

Reasons and explanations for decisions and actions taken under this procedure will be provided in writing if requested. Written records of all grievances handled under this procedure and their outcomes shall be maintained for a period of at least five (5) years to allow all parties to the grievance appropriate access to these records, upon written request to the Director, Academic Quality & Standards.
