

POLICY TITLE: Student Conduct

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to guide the conduct of students of Photography Studies College (Melbourne), and to ensure there are a clear and transparent set of principles that guide students in their engagement with Photography Studies College (Melbourne) and its students and staff.

Students have a responsibility to conduct themselves appropriately in accordance with the student responsibilities outlined in this Policy and in more detail, in the Photography Studies College (Melbourne) Student Code of Conduct in the Student Handbook/s.

Policy

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) is committed to the principles and practices of equal opportunity for all its students. All students have the right to be supported, treated fairly and with respect. This means Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will do its best to ensure that all students learn in a supportive environment, which is free from discrimination, harassment or bullying. These principles and practices are encapsulated in a number of Photography Studies College (Melbourne) Policies, in particular the Fair Treatment and Equal Benefits and Opportunity Policy.

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will ensure its students' uphold the values of academic integrity described in Academic Integrity Policy.

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) believes all students have a responsibility to be supportive of others and treat them fairly and with respect.

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) will require its students' to adhere to a set of principles and responsibilities, which it has determined, are conducive to a positive learning environment. These principles are:

- respect for others;
- integrity;
- diligence; and
- economy and efficiency

1. Respect for others

All students are expected to treat others, including other students, staff, external organisations and members of the community with fairness and respect.

This involves:

- 1.1 Conduct yourself in a courteous and respectful manner to all staff and fellow students at all times.
- 1.2 Respect the rights and opinions of other students, staff and guests; treat them with fairness and do not offend, embarrass or threaten them. This includes not engaging in any behaviour that limits or reduces the learning opportunities of others.
- 1.3 Dress in a manner that is neat and does not offend others.

- 1.4 Obey all laws in relation to Sexual Harassment, Equal Opportunity and Occupational Health and Safety.

2. Integrity

- 2.1 All Students have an obligation as a citizen to observe the laws of the State and Commonwealth.
- 2.2 Students are required to be familiar with and comply with, all relevant Photography Studies College (Melbourne) policies, procedures and Photography Studies College (Melbourne)'s Student Code of Conduct.
- 2.3 Approach and undertake the course with personal commitment and integrity.
- 2.4 All students have an obligation to abide by the Plagiarism Policy

3. Diligence

- 3.1 Fully participate in the course and attend all classes. All students must attend all classes and meet the minimum 80% attendance requirement as per the Student Progress and Exclusion Policy.
- 3.2 Arrive on time for the commencement of classes, notify absences, and supply medical certificates where required. Students are requested not to make appointments for whatever reason during class time.

4. Economy and efficiency

- 4.1 Take appropriate and reasonable care of all Photography Studies College (Melbourne) property and equipment

Procedures

Photography Studies College (Melbourne) has determined specific behaviours against which it will take action. Misbehaviour and misconduct will be acted upon in a manner that is described in the Student Discipline section below, and further elaborated in the Student Handbook/s.

Misbehaviour/Misconduct

Misbehaviour/misconduct that is deemed unacceptable for an educational setting such as Photography Studies College (Melbourne) includes, but is not limited to any behaviour that:

- Is likely to impede the learning of others
- Is likely to be detrimental to the health, safety, welfare of staff or other students
- Causes damage, or is likely to cause damage
- May bring Photography Studies College (Melbourne)'s academic credibility and/or reputation into disrepute

Serious misconduct will be dealt with in accordance with relevant state or commonwealth laws.

Student Discipline

Any student who fails to abide by the standards of behaviour or any student, who has a complaint lodged about him or her, may be the subject of a Disciplinary Interview.

Attendance at a Disciplinary Interview is mandatory for a student. A Disciplinary interview will be notified in writing at least 1 week prior to the date set down for the Interview and will be attended by two or more PSC staff members. Any student required to attend such an interview may invite another person to attend as well and such person may make representation to the interview on behalf of the student.

A decision may be made to suspend or cancel the enrolment or not reenrol a student on the grounds of misbehaviour, unacceptable behaviour and / or breach of responsible behaviour. The results and outcomes arising out of any disciplinary interview will be conveyed to the student by mail within 5 working days of the completion of the interview.

Student Appeal

A student will have the right to appeal a decision made in a disciplinary interview, using the Grievance handling policy and procedure (for academic and non academic matters).

Definitions

Nil

Related Documentation

Policies

- Fair Treatment and Equal Benefits and Opportunity
- Plagiarism
- Academic Appeals
- Academic Integrity
- Grievance handling policy and procedure (for academic and non academic matters)

Procedures, Forms & Documents

Student Handbook/s

Publishing Details

Policy number: HED_VET_ST005_V3	Status: Final
Approved: 21/12/2016	Review Date: June 2019
Julie Moss - Managing Director	Published: December 2016

